

Program LMI Analysis

This report analyzes one program for Anytown Community College, showing the labor market data for its Electrical and Power Transmission Installation/Installer, General program (CIP 46.0301).

PROGRAM VS. REGION

- The program occupation has grown 9% since 2006, and LMI data projects 15% growth by 2012.
- The region has grown -1% since 2006, and LMI data projects 5% growth by 2012.
- Both the historical growth rate and the projected growth rate surpass the average regional growth for occupations.

COMPLETIONS VS. OPENINGS

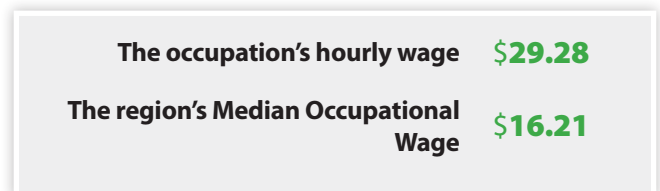

- Anytown Community College shows 12 completers in their Electrical and Power Transmission Installation program for 2008.
- Electrical Power-Line Installers and Repairers show 16 annual job openings for Anytown, USA.
- Anytown CC provides completers to fill the openings in the region.

(No other colleges in the region produced completers for this program.)

PROGRAM WAGE VS. REGIONAL WAGE

The wage for this occupation, which Anytown CC trains for, surpasses the region's median occupational wage.

EMPLOYERS:

The businesses, by industry, employing this occupation include:

BUSINESS NAME	DESCRIPTION	LOCAL EMPLOYEES
ACME Energy Corp	Electric power distribution	900
Telecom Business Name	Wired telecommunications carriers	300
ACME Energy Corp	Wired telecommunications carriers	160
Telecom Business Name	Power and communication system construction	30
Acme Energy Corp	Electric power distribution	17

Source: Nielsen Claritas Business-Facts®

